

Torquay had a mixed Sunday morning when they played against Teignmouth. Their first game was a win to Torquay 20-0.

Torquay's immense pressure prevented Teignmouth from getting into the game and was mainly played in their half for the majority of the game. Torquay outshone again in the scrums winning their own and Teignmouth's scrums throughout the game giving a huge advantage to Torquay. Harrison Gill was first to score for the young Tics from a scrum and weaved through to the try line. Josh Lovell had a great game and scored the second try.

Pressure continued and the game was on Torquay's try line for a few minutes, with excellent rucking and scrummaging from Thomas Roberts, Elliot Robinson and Callum Fraser which empowered the team and kept Teignmouth from gaining possession. Man of the Match George Lawrence was over the tryline, but Torquay conceded a penalty. However quick reactions from Torquay counter rucked Teignmouth off the ball and Josh Lovell picked the ball up to score, making the first half score 15-0.

The second half continued in the same fashion with Marley Tyler and Callum Fraser very close to scoring but being disallowed. From a lineout, Thomas Roberts caught the ball and passed to Lovell to score the final try.

The second game was a completely new team for both sides to ensure the whole squad had some game time. Torquay were not so lucky and lost 30-10. Teignmouth were fast and scored 5 tries in the first half and Torquay struggled to get in the game, however they soon gelled together fantastically and came back with two tries in the second half. Barney had a quick release with the ball and scored followed by a good try from James Allcock. Nathan Snape and Jake Harker had a few good runs too. Leigh Skeffington was awarded man of the match for the second game..
