

Having a month off didn't do Torquay any favours and lost to Okehampton 20-10. Having beaten Okehampton 15-5 last October and losing their winning streak after three years, Okehampton were hungry to win and out-played Torquay.

Immediately Okehampton put the pressure on, and a rusty Torquay took a while to wake up. However Torquay realised they had a game on their hands, and with some good rucking and mauling from Elliot Robinson and Thomas Roberts, pushed the game back into Torquay's half.

With a scrum to Torquay, the ball was passed from Lovell to Powell to James Allcock who went over the line for the first try of the game.

Again Torquay gained possession from the centre with a good run from Callum Frazer, but Okehampton regained the ball and scored a try.

Torquay continued to defend really well but were driven back and Okehampton scored again making the half time score 5-10.

Following the break, Marley Tyler equalised by weaving through Okehampton's defence and going over the line.

Okehampton were the better team on the day and were determined to beat Torquay scoring twice making the final score 10-20.

Man of the match was Josh Lovell.

The seconds had a great game and were unfortunate to lose 25-15.

Torquay held their game well and Nathan Snape had a few good runs with the ball.

Josh Lovell scored the first two tries, the second being set up well by Finlay Bushnall.

Leigh Skeffington also played well and was named Lady of the Match, really getting stuck into the game and rucking well.

Okehampton scored once in the first half and nearly again but dropped the ball on the try line.

Okehampton played well in the second half, but so did Torquay and Finlay Bushnall scored Torquay's final try, but unfortunately was not enough to beat Okehampton,
