

Torquay had a tough first match against Kingsbridge resulting in a 25 all draw. The first half was a fast and furious game and Torquay had a poor start allowing Kingsbridge to run in three tries quickly but Torquay didn't let that phase them.

Torquay managed to drive their way to their try line and remained there, not without pressure from Kingsbridge!! Eventually Elliot Robinson found a gap to go over the line.

Again Torquay's pressure allowed the game to be played in their own half and from a scrum, Harrison Gill scored in the corner. Kingsbridge quickly returned a try making the score at half time 20-10.

As soon as the starting whistle had gone, Harrison Gill dummied and ran down the line to score, followed by another quick try seconds later to complete his hatrick.

Gabriel Ross also scored putting Torquay in the lead briefly before Kingsbridge ran the ball to make the final score 25-25. Harrison Gill was awarded man of the match and Callum Fraser worked really hard and was excellent in the lineouts

The second game resulted in a win for Torquay 45-30. There was some great rucking allowing Josh Lovell to pick the ball up, run and score. The game remained in Torquay;s half and Leigh Sketherington managed to get her name on the scoresheet too.

Jake Harker scored twice in quick succession keeping the pressure on Kingsbridge.

Kingsbridge came back with a try, and Marley Tyler fought right back for Torquay and broke through scoring again for Torquay.

Josh Lovell completed his hatrick with two more tries putting half time score at 35-10.

Kingsbridge scored a couple more tires in the second half but Torquay drove on to their try line and Louis Powell scored a try to finish off a good win for Torquay.

James Allcock was awarded man of the match for this game.
