

Torquay u8s were back on form when they played local rivals Brixham at Astley Park on Sunday. Captain Tom Hocking showed great leadership skills and his team romped to an early lead with Owen-Lee Provins scoring the first two trys. Josef got one back for Brixham but Torquay kept Brixham at bay for the rest of the half. Trys for Torquay came thick and fast from Matthew Rutland, Henry Sanderson and Callum Crocker(2) giving Torquay a 30-5 lead at half time. Torquay changed their entire team for the second half and the trys kept on coming. Man of the match, Harry Sutton had his try scoring boots on scoring four consecutive trys for the Mini Tics. Brixham player Spencer got one back for Brixham but Benjamin Woodward finished the game with his try giving a final score of 55-10 to Torquay.

In the second game it was Callum Crocker who gave Brixham a hard time scoring three trys on the trot for Torquay. Brixham's Charlie got Brixham on the scoreboard but at half time it was 15-5 to Torquay. In the second half Torquay kept the pressure on with Joe Snape opening the scoring for the Mini Tics quickly followed by Ethan Bradshaw-Price and Benjamin Woodward. Brixham's Evan replied with three trys of his own to try and close the gap, but Harry Sutton scored twice along with Joe Snape. Lewis Crocker added another to take Torquay's try tally to 10. Jake and Josef added two more tries to Brixham's score and the game finished in a victory of 50-30 to Torquay.
