

Torquay u8s had an enjoyable morning at Okehampton last Sunday morning. The sides were very evenly matched and Torquay had to be at their best to narrowly overcome the opposition. After a great tagging session Torquay managed to get turnover ball which Harry Sutton took advantage of by scoring the first try. Okehampton came back at Torquay and scored a try of their own. Captain Owen-Lee Provins added two tries to the Mini Tics score and Okehampton did the same to level the score. Harry Sutton and Benjamin Woodward added a try each giving Torquay a slight advantage of 25-20 at half time. Owen-Lee Provins kept the tries coming scoring three in the second half. Callum Crocker took advantage of a rare mistake by Okehampton to score his first try of the match and Joe Snape then added another. The tries went tit for tat in this half but Torquay scraped a 50-45 victory.

In the second game Okehampton took an early lead and Torquay struggled to keep up with the pace. Matthew Rutland (2) and Henry Sanderson (1) were Torquay's scorers in the first half, but Okehampton had a strong lead of 35-15 at half time. After the break Callum Crocker (1) and Lewis Crocker (3) closed the gap and Man of the Match Benjamin Woodward ran the length of the pitch to add to Torquay's tally. Okehampton held their nerve and has a well deserved win of 45-40.
